A Trite Saying.

It is a trite saying that no man is stronger than his stomach. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery strengthens the stomach—puts it in shape to make pure, rich blood—helps the liver and kidneys to expel the poisons from the body and thus cures both liver and kidney troubles. If you take this natural blood purifier and tonic, you will assist your system in manufacturing each day a pint of rich, red blood, that is invigorating to the brain and nerves. The weak, nervous, run-down, debilitated condition which so many people suffer from, is usually the effect of poisons in the blood; it is often indicated by pimples or boils appearing on the skin, the face becomes thin and the feelings "blue." Dr. Pierce's "Discovery" cures all blood humors as well as being a tonic that makes one vigorous, strong and forceful. It is the only medicine put up for sale through druggists for like purposes that contains neither alcohol nor harmful habit-forming drugs, and the only one, every ingredient of which has the professional endorsement of the leading medical writers of this country. Some of these endorsements are published in a little book of extracts from standard medical works and will be sent to any address free, on receipt of request therefor by letter or postal card, addressed to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y. It tells just what Dr. Pierce's medicines are made of.

The "Words of Praise" for the several ingredients of which Dr. Pierce's medicines are composed, by leaders in all the several schools of medical practice, and recommending them for the cure of the diseases for which the "Golden Medical Discovery" is advised, should have far more weight with the sick and afflicted than any amount of the so-called "testimonials" so conspicuously flaunted before the public by those who are afraid to let the ingredients of which their medicines are composed be known. Bear in mind that the "Golden Medical Discovery" has THE BADGE OF HONESTY on every bottle wrapper, in a full list of its ingredients.

A Much-married Woman.

"Miss" Angusta Bruning, cook—fair, fat, but not 40—was arraigned in the Tombs Police Court in New York, yesterday on a charge of bigamy, having married no less than four husbands in a short time. Three of her husbands were in court, but did not look at her. They expressed regret at the absence of the other because it broke up a quartet. The woman waived examination and was held in $500 bail to await the action of the grand jury.

Augusta Bruning began her matrimonial career 10 years ago by marrying Henry Koehler in Waterbury, Ct. She soon got tired of him, however, and then went to New York.

"I just had to marry them," she said in court yesterday, in explanation of her marriages. "I could not get rid of them. They pestered me and bothered me, and I finally married them. I suppose I would have had more trailing after me if I had not been arrested."

Soon after leaving Koehler she met Philip Feltzenberger, husband No. 2, whom she has "almost forgotton." "I was employed at 131 Avenue B" said Feltzenberger, in telling of his courtship. "One day this woman moved in and I helped her put up a mirror. Looking into the glass, I saw that our faces were close together, and said: 'Doesn't that look lovely?' and she replied that it did. Then she suggested that we get married; so we did." Otto Miller was husband No. 3. He lives at 206 east Thirteenth street. She entered his home as a cook and went out as a wife. While at the Miller home she met Frank Newman, and a short acquaintance culminated in marriage. Becoming suspicious of his wife's frequent absence from home, Newman followed her one day about two weeks ago and saw her meet Miller. Her arrest followed a conference of husbands Nos. 2, 3 and 4.

Another Strike Threatened.

Every railroad in the country on which members of the Switchmen's Union of America are employed received yesterday from that organization a demand for increased wages and an eight-hour day. With the demand was also presented notification that unless satisfactory terms are reached a strike vote will be taken by the union within two weeks.

Strengthened by the promised support of engineers and firemen, one branch of the switchmen employed in the Chicago railroad yards went before officials of the various roads yesterday and presented the demand.

At a mass-meetnig of yard employes held Wednesday night it was reported the western roads centering in Chicago will tender the men a compromise offer amounting to an increase of two cents an hour in pay. The offer represents eight cents an hour less than demanded.

"It may be stated definitely," said Grand Master Hawley, "that the offer will not be accepted by the switchmen."

The securing of the engineers and firemen as allies had much to do with the stiffening of the switchmen's determination. The enginemen, who are members of the Engineers and Firemen's Brotherhood, on Wednesday presented demands to the railroads all over the country. The demands apply solely to men working on switching engines, and do not affect engineers or firemen on "through" runs.

As an advance over the present scale of 31 cents, the engineers asked for 50 cents an hour, while the firemen expressed their desire for a raise from 18 cents to 25 cents an hour.

Something went wrong with the mass meeting in Madison Square Garden, New York, last night, which was advertised as a "labor ratification meeting to indorse the candidacy of William Randolph Hearst for governor," and as "labor's tribute to Hearst."

It started dismally, woke up a bit when Mr. Hearst entered the Garden, and then petered out, melted away, broke up noisily while Mr. Hearst was talking. He had scarcely started his speech when the rush for the doors commenced.

The members of various union labor organizations which had paraded up Broadway and into the Garden, carrying flags and transparencies, were the first to break for the doors. All over the big building there was a pounding and shuffling of feet as the audience disintegrated and headed for the exits. Mr. Hearst finished his speech in a din and confusion that made it impossible for any but those who sat in rows of seats near the speaker's platform, to hear what he was saying.

Plainly, Mr. Hearst was disappointed and dispirited by the undeniably impolite reception he got. He went to the Garden in fine spirits. He left gloomy and down cast.

Human Blood Marks.

A tale of horror was told by marks of human blood in the home of J. W. Williams, a well known merchant of Bac, Ky., He writes: "Twenty years ago I had severe hemorrhages of the lungs, and was near death when I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery. It completely cured me and I have remained well ever since." It cures Hemmorhages, Chronic Coughs, Settled Colds and Bronchitis, and is the only known cure for Weak Lungs. Every bottle guaranteed by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, Druggists 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

The Lonely Life

The Tragic Confession of a Spinster, Who Realizes That No Fame or Wealth Can Compensate for the Solitude of Her Life.

In this article the author, whose name for obvious reasons we are not at liberty to disclose, drops for once the mask which she in common with other "Bachelor Maids," is accustomed to turn to the world.

Though no longer young, she frankly says she longs for the companionship of a husband and the care of children. The circumstances which have kept from her the happiness which these blessings bring are stated with the same directness which characterizes the whole article. It is the life-story of a "successful" woman, a drama of real life in which the last act is a tragedy.

Young Women Capture a Thief.

Miss Frances Kern and Miss Alice Segers, of Brooklyn, are employed in the same office. They were on their way from lunch when a man grabbed Miss Kern's purse and passed it to a second man.

The first man got away, but before the other could make a move Miss Kern had two hands gripped in his collar, and Miss Segers, with an utter disregard for expense, was wearing out a silver-handled umbrella on his head and shoulders. Vainly the captured man writhed and kicked to be free. He could neither shake off Miss Kern nor dodge the avenging umbrella of Miss Segers.

It only takes about half a minute to gather a crowd of 3,000 people in Nassau street in the daytime, and so when Policeman Hanlon got there he had to club his way through a huge, cheering mob before he could reach the three actors in the drama. He relieved the young women of their captive and searched him. In his pocket was Miss Kern's purse.

Hanlon led the man to the Centre Street Police Court, with a huge crowd tagging behind. The two girls went along to testify against him. He told the magistrate he was Ben Middlebury, and was held for General Sessions in bonds of $5,000.

Alexandria Gazette
SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS
AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

FRIDAY EVENING, OCT. 26, 1906.

THE PEOPLE of Richmond are realizing the necessity for the adoption of an ordinance closing the barrooms of the city at midnight. Complaints are beginning to come from citizens in all walks of life and from all parts of the city of disorders and other evils growing out of the practice of saloons to close at will, and the discussion of this matter has evidently now assumed proportions of more than an incidental importance. Alderman Ellett offered in the finance committee Tuesday night a motion to fix a flat license tax of $1,000 on barrooms and to reduce the number from 230 to 100. The matter went over at the request of some of the members pending the probable bringing up of the early closing question, but Mr. Ellett declared he would renew his motion later, and continue to do so until it was acted upon one way or another. It is said that the better class of Richmond saloons are closed at proper hours and that disorders in the same are few and far between. The movement is consequently directed against the disreputable resorts where fights and often murders occur. It has been suggested that the sale of liquor per se is by no means objectionable to the large majority, but the scenes often incident to its vending form the objectionable features. In some countries there seems to be no more odium attached to the traffic than in the disposition of any other commodity. These conditions are brought about by certain regulations that could be enforced in all lands. Limiting the number of saloons has failed to eradicate the more objectionable features of the same, as it has been shown that concentration of customers in the few places granted licenses is all that has been accomplished, the same scenes prevailing in the limited number of places that formerly characterized the many. In England public drinking places are so arranged that loitering about the premises is impossible. A man obtains a drink, which is generally furnished by a young woman, and after swallowing the drink he immediately vacates the "stall." Barkeepers in that country are not allowed to sell stimulants to a man who shows the effects of liquor. By such rules the odium so often incidental to drinking liquor is minimized.

DEFEAT in his fight for re-election stares John Dalzell, the champion of tariff in Congress, in the face. So pronounced and strong has become the opposition to him in Pittsburg that the administration at Washington has been appealed to for help, and is sending Attorney General Moody to Pittsburg to speak from the same platform with Senator Knox, at a meeting to be presided over in person by Congressman Dalzell, on Saturday night. At the same time the United States steel trust, the Pennsylvania Railroad, the Westinghouse interests and the Pittsburg Coal Company, whose leading concerns are in Mr. Dalzell's district, are working hard for him, and within the past few days, it is said, they have poured not less than $500,000 into the district to assist in returning Dalzell to Congress, which shows what a valuable man to the trusts he is. By a special act last year there was a new congressional district, the Thirtieth, formed round Dalzell, taking in all the big works of the trusts mentioned. This now promises to be the undoing of the tariff champion, as ex-Mayor R. J. Black, of McKeesport, is making a hard fight against Dalzell, and in that labor stronghold his strength is great.

DR. GLADDEN delivered an address on the colored race before the American Missionary Society in Oberlin, Ohio, yesterday. Among other things he said race segregation would tend toward the betterment of the negro, and that colored people should have their homes in the South. The last suggestion is doubtless correct, from the fact that this class are better understood here than in any other part of the country, and were the colored element to do their part there would be no friction between them and the white race. Unfortunately a large majority fail to fulfill their mission, and when serious conditions follow they have no one to blame but themselves. Segregation, however, has proven to be the curse of the negro race. So long as they lived with white people, where proper examples were set them, colored people were docile and gave but little trouble. For two-score years they have been segregated, and present conditions are best the commentary upon the result.

THE MARITAL infelicities of the Duke and Duchess of Marlborough are being ventilated throughout the civilized world. A decade ago Miss Consuelo Vanderbilt, an American heiress minus a title, was tempted to link her fortune with the Duke of Marlborough. The modest surroundings of the land of her birth were accordingly exchanged for Blenheim Palace, which with all its gilt and glamor contains its skeletons. The duke is charged with infidelity and an American beauty would be named as a corespondent were the duchess to institute a suit for divorce. The sad case of Miss Anna Gould is still in the limelight. She purchased a title with her millions and thereby placed many thorns in her pillow. The above are among the more prominent cases where American heiresses have had their lives embittered by marrying titled foreigners.

MR. HEARST, it seems, fails to appeal to many of the working class. In New York last night the would-be Governor found himself speaking to empty benches when he attempted to address what was intended to be a gathering of laboring men. This class, while possessing brawn, are not without brains, and can see the hollowness of certain people who pose as their champions. Of all the men who have attempted to ride the labor hobby Hearst is the most transparent imposter, and workingmen in general will not allow themselves to form the tail of his political kite.

LEAVES HAVE their time to fall and judging from the sidewalks this is the time.

From Washington.

(Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.)
Washington, Oct. 26.

Senator Scott, of West Virginia, had a talk with the President this morning about the political situation in his State and when he emerged from the executive office, declared that "everything is all right." "I have just come in from a little talking tour over the State," he said, "and found that there was no complaint to make from a republican point of view." Senator Scott was asked if he agreed with his colleague, Senator Elkins, who recently expressed the belief that President Roosevelt ought to accept the nomination for another term. "I do not believe that West Virginia is in favor of one man holding the office continuously" replied Senator Scott.

The President and his advisors will soon have before them the recommendations of Attorney General Moody relative to the proposed prosecution of the Standard Oil Company as a gigantic trust operating in restraint of trade. While the nature of the case precludes any accurate prediction as to the time when suit will be begun in an effort to dissolve the trust, reliable authority suggests the middle of November. It is understood that the exhaustive inquiry made the past seven months by the special attorneys has been productive of that evidence which the government desires to support it in its legal battle against the trust and it is said that it corroborates and amplified the records already in the possession of the Department of Justice.

Serious consideration was given to the Japanese situation at today's Cabinet meeting. Although matters have not progressed to the stage of "strained relations" between the United States and Japan, there is no concealing the fact that officials of the administration are considerably perturbed lest such a result may ensue. Each nation has, in effect, accused the other of violating treaty rights. Japan has asked the United States its opinion as to whether or not the action of the San Francisco authorities in barring Japanese children from the public schools was not an infraction of the treaty of 1894. The United States has made a similar inquiry as to the conduct of the Japanese poachers in Alaskan waters. While these exchanges are going on between the State Department and the Tokio foreign office, the administration here will make every effort to assuage the anti-American feeling in Japan. Plans were considered at today's meeting for working out a solution of the problem at San Francisco. The authorities there allege that it was only because of lack of facilities that the Japanese were barred from the school. They also set up the claim that the federal government has no jurisdiction in the case, the control of school matters under the constitution resting solely in the State. They contend that any treaty in contravention of this authority of the State is illegal and non-enforceable. This phase of the case is already on its way to the Supreme Court of the United States, suit having been entered in the U. S. Circuit Court at San Francisco yesterday to enjoin the school board from removing a certain Japanese scholar. Should the Supreme Court uphold the injunction, there would be no question as to the power of the federal government to enforce it. Disobedience would result in contempt proceedings in which almost any sort of punishment could be inflicted on the members of the school board or any other responsible officials.

President Roosevelt will be forty-eight years old tomorrow, but he does not intend to take a holiday to celebrate the event. The President will observe his natal anniversary by working the usual number of hours in his office, and, after 4 o'clock, playing tennis or going for a horseback ride in the suburbs. Mrs. Roosevelt and the children will remember the day by giving the President little presents, and many of his close friends and relatives will send to the White House floral offerings.

The ice trust cases were called in the Criminal Court this morning. The defendants pleaded not guilty. The trial will begin in the early part of November.

The convicted murderer Grant was this morning sentenced to be hanged on November 16.

The Majestic lunch room, at 938 Pennsylvania avenue, was practically gutted by fire at 3 o'clock this morning. Between thirty and forty guests who were sleeping in Lyon's Hotel, adjoining the lunch room, were aroused by the fire and while there was much excitement no one was injured.

Robert Bacon, Assistant Secretary of Secretary of State made a sweeping denial this morning of the rumor that he was slated to succeed Robert S. McCormick as United States Ambassador to France.

Woman's Christian Temperance.

Hartford, Conn., Oct. 26—With an attendance of about 450 delegates, from various parts of the country, supplemented by others interested in the cause from all over the world, the thirty-third annual convention of the National Woman's Christian Temperance Union, was begun here today and will continue for a week.

New York Stock Market.

New York, Oct. 26.—The stock market continued heavy again this morning, with Reading the principal feature. There was a significant and important selling that carried its price down to 139¼, the lowest price reached in several months. Price movements all through the list were about the same as in Reading, early gains of fractional amounts being followed by a drop of a point or more.

News of the Day.

A Philadelphia judge severely criticised Thomas Dixon, jr., and sustained the mayor in refusing to allow "The Clansman" to be played there.

The convention of the center party of Silesia adopted a resolution of protest against the Prussian government compelling Polish school children to say prayers and learn the catechism and Bible history in German.

The first importation of strike-breakers to take the place of the Southern Railway machinists who are on strike in the shops at Atlanta reached there yesterday. About 75 men were in the lot. No trouble has occurred and it is announced that additional men, about 150 in all, are to be brought to the Atlanta shops.

Three persons were killed and three seriously injured in a collision at Woodside, L. I., yesterday between a Long Island Railroad train and a coach which was returning to New York from a funeral at Calvary cemetery. Edgar Griffin, the driver, drove the vehicle directly in front of the rapidly approaching train. The coach was demolished, the horses were killed and the occupants hurled in all directions. Patrick Healy and his two children were instantly killed. Mrs. Healy was seriously injured, while the injuries of Lynch and Griffin were of a less serious nature.

Dr. Washington Gladden, the Ohio clergyman who leaped into particular prominence some time ago by declaring that churches and religious organizations should not take Rockefeller's money "because it was tainted" came out yesterday strongly for separation of the races.

Hooe Insolent in Court.

Counsel for Clifford Hooe, the negro formerly employed as coachman by Augustus Hartje, the millionaire paper manufacturer, on trial in Pittsburg for perjury, as the result of an affidavit he made swearing he had been intimate with Mrs. Hartje, which was to have been used in the Hartje divorce trial, had great trouble with the defendant yesterday.

Hooe's insolence to witnesses was unparalleled in the history of the local courts. He leered at some, stuck his tongue out at others, and even rose to his feet and called one of the witnesses, William C. Battles, a negro contractor, who was testying against him, a vile name, Hooe was severely rebuked by Judge Frazer.

It became apparent early in the day that Hooe's defense was based on the fact that an affidavit secured from him, in which he swore that he did not tell the truth when he accused Mrs. Hartje in his first affidavit, was obtained by coercion, and therefore is invalid.

However, Hooe made a third affidavit to the district attorney, in which he reaffirmed the truth of his second statement. This affidavit was read in court yesterday.

Alderman King, who issued a number of warrants for Hooe, was called and said he heard Hooe dictate his statement, and that Hooe was cautioned before he made it that what he said might be used against him. According to the alderman Hooe replied:

"I know; I want to make a clear confession—a clear statement. I am sorry for the other statement. Mrs. Hartje is a lady and wouldn't do those things. I oughtn't to have said them."

Banker Attacks Reporter.

Angered by a story that appeared in Wednesday's issue of the Times-Herald, an afternoon newspaper of Newport News, Fenton F. Finch, president of the American Exchange Bank, and one of the wealthiest men on the peninsula, visited the office of that paper yesterday afternoon.

The only person in the office was Wright McWilliams, a reporter, and the banker is said to have hurled vile epithets at him, finally calling him a liar. Although 75 pounds lighter and much smaller than the banker, the reporter struck Finch in the face, knocking him against the wall. The banker retaliated, hitting the reporter on the ear and splitting it. The men then clinched, and McWilliams grabbed Finch by the throat and when Editor W. T. Kirby, having been attracted by the noise, appeared on thescene, the banker was crying: "Stop! Let me go; stop!"

As the editor advanced toward the combatants, the banker broke away, picked up his crushed derby and hastened from the office, ignoring the editor's request that he remain and explain the trouble.

After the fight the reporter surrendered himself at the police station, and Banker Finch was arrested on a warrant charging him with assault and battery, the warrant being sworn out by P. T. Marshall, manager of the paper. Both men were bailed for their appearance in the Police Court today.

Knights Templar.

The Grand Commandery, Knights Templar, of Virginia, met at the Masonic Temple, in Richmond, yesterday, holding two session and concluding with the election of officers and a banquet last night. It was decided that the next meeting will be held in Norfolk. Mr. John D. Oglesby, of Lynchburg, was elected grand warden, all the other officers being promoted as is the usual custom, save the recorder and treasurer, who were elected.

The election of officers resulted in the selection of S. S. Nottingham, of Norfolk, as grand commander. The other officers chosen were: Deputy Grand Commander, Rev. F. T. McFaden, of Richmond; Generalissimo, W. C. Stevenson; Grand Captain-General, A. W. Traylor, of Danville; Grand Senior Warden, W. B. McChesney, of Staunton; Grand Junior Warden, F. D. Hotchkiss, of Richmond; Grand Recorder, James B. Blanks, of Petersburg; Grand Treasurer, G. W. Poe, of Richmond; Grand Standard-Bearer, E. M Baker, of Winchester; Grand Sword-Bearer, John H. Fisher, of Alexandria; Grand Warder, John D. Oglesby, of Lynchburg. Following the meeting of the Grand Commandery the Knights enjoyed a banquet.

Miss Milicent Lupton, daughter of Rev. J. W. Lupton, pastor of the Presbyterian church at Leesburg, was married yesterday afternoon to Rev. Charles Turner Caldwell, of Waco, Tex., in the Presbyterian church by the father of the bride.

The synod of Virginia of the Presbyterian Church began its 119th annual session in Staunton yesterday. There was a sermon by the moderator, Rev. Newton Donaldson, D. D., of Martinsburg, W. Va. A large number of delegates have already arrived, and it is thought at least 300 will be present.

St. Paul's Episcopal Church in King George county was the scene of a beautiful wedding Wednesday evening, when Miss Eleanor Lewis Washington, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Washington, of Buena Vista farm, became the bride of Mr. Bernard Scott, of Popes' Creek, Md. The ceremony was performed by Rev. B. T. Turner. After a northern tour they will reside at Popes' Creek.

The following officers were elected at the close of the convention of the Kings Daughters and Sons in Portsmouth last night: Mrs Charles Burton of Richmond State secretary; Mrs Lula McField, of Richmond, recording secretary; and Mrs. Neal A. Melick, of Norfolk State treasurer.

CONFEDERATE VETERANS.

Yesterday was the big day of the nineteenth reunion in Richmond, of the Grand Camp, United Confederate Veterans, of Virginia. The weather was perfect, and the crowd one of the largest that ever attended the annual gathering.

The session was called to order in Assembly Hall early in the day by Grand Commander J. H. Fulton, of Wytheville.

The first business was the reading of the annual report of Major F. M. Morton, State inspector general. The report was adopted. Major John W. Daniel, chairman of the school committee, addressed the gathering. He said the proudest monument at the State capital was one to the private soldier. He referred to the pension laws of the State, and said it was pleasing to realize that the State had been enabled to thus provide for those who had served her in her need. The State was prosperous and its population exceeded that of both Virginia and West Virginia before the war. The race question was never less menacing or better handled and understood. None had been more active in bringing about this condition than the Confederates. The sum for pensions was not more than half what the commonwealth would provide if she could. He spoke of the act of Congress appropriating $200,000 for marking the graves of Confederate soldiers as an illustration of Jasper's theory that the "sun do move. Senator Daniel closed with a eulogy of General Jubal Early, and showed the high esteem in which he was held by General Lee. His description of Early's pursuit of Hunter and his famous raid aroused the greatest enthusiasm, many old Confederates yelling out "I was there," "I was with him." "General Early has told me many times he could have taken Washington with the Second Corps," said Senator Daniel.

"That he could," yelled many who were in the famous corps.

The parade in the afternoon was the longest ever seen there, and attracted many thousands of spectators. Mrs William Mahone, widow of Gen. Wm. Mahone, and Mrs. Lucy Lee Hill Macgill, daughter of A. P. Hill, occupied a carriage at the head of the parade and were cheered all along the line.

Last night the veterans held a campfire and smoker.

The meeting of the United Sons of Confederate Veterans was called to order by Commander W. W. Ould yesterday morning. There was a large attendance. The committee on credentials made its report, after which the report of the division commander was read, showing the division to be in a fine condition. A considerable amount of routine business was transacted, during which a resolution was passed providing for the appointment of a division historian. A resolution was passed providing for the printing and distribution of copies of the speech made by Robert E. Lee, jr., at the Academy of Music Thursday night and for the appointment of delegates to attend the funerals of soldiers who might die in the different counties of the State.

The meeting adjourned until today, when the division commander will be elected.

Wedding in Leesburg.

Miss Alice Nutt Wise, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William N. Wise, of Leesburg, and W. Preston Gibson, of the People's National Bank, of that town, were married yesterday afternoon in the Presbyterian Church of Leesburg, Rev. J. W. Lupton officiating. Miss Helen V. Wise, of Salisbury, Md., was maid of honor. The best man was William Fletcher, of Upperville. The bridesmaids were Misses Lucy Douglas, of Alexandria; Helen Gibson, of Upperville; Patience Vandevanter, of Paconian Springs; Julia Newton, of Delaware City, Del.; Richard Etta Wise and Cora Lutz, of Leesburg. The groomsmen were Blackwell Smith, of Upperville; Hubert Plaster and Campbell Littleton, of Leesburg; Braden Vandevanter, of Newport News; Keith and William A. Wise, jr., of Leesburg. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Gibson left for the South. They will reside at Leesburg.

Today's Telegraphic News

Duchess Will Not Bring Suit.

London, Oct. 26.—Only the earnest pleadings of intimate friends not to ruin the political future of her husband, by creating a scandal, which would be sure to ruin him, have induced the Duchess of Marlborough, formerly Miss Consuelo Vanderbilt, of New York, to abandon her contemplated suit for divorce against her husband. The Duke of Marlborough is hopeful of securing a place in the British cabinet in a future ministry. It was pointed out to his wife that such a scandal as her suit would have aroused would have meant political death to the duke. At the solicitation of friends of both parties she has been induced, according to the latest gossip in regard to their unhappy marital affairs, not to bring suit.

As a compromise, terms of separation without a resort to the courts have been arranged by which both parents would be allowed to see the children. The troubles of the duke and his wife have thus been settled temporarily at least.

Had the duchess brought suit a well-known American beauty, whose name has been linked recently with a prominent European prince, would, it is said, have been named as a corespondent. It was to prevent this scandal that the duchess was urged to agree to a separation privately.

Coolness has existed between the duke and his wife for a long time. When the duchess discovered the unfaithfulness of her husband, she was very angry, according to all reports, and insisted upon bringing immediate suit for divorce. It was with the greatest difficulty that friends who have succeeded in patching up other quarrels between the couple were able to induce the duchess to abandon her proposed suit for divorce.

Riotous Proceedings in New York.

New York, Oct. 26.—The Hotel Bartholdi today bore silent testimony to the violence of the riot which occurred there last night when a crowd of angry Hearst men tried to force their way into the hotel to wreck the headquarters of the Independent Democratic Municipal Ownership League, an anti-Hearst organization. Several of the plate glass windows on the Twenty-third street side of the hotel were smashed. The picture of a lemon labelled "Hearst" cast on a screen by a steroptican was the cause of the riot. Hundreds of men who had been unable to get into Hearst's Madison Square Garden meeting had collected outside the Bartholdi to witness the lantern show. When the lemon was thrown on the screen a cry was raised to tear down the banner.

A rush forward was made, the ropes were cut and in a moment the offending banner came down to be torn into bits. Then a rush was made for the league room. The hotel doors were barred in time to keep out the crowd, however.

Locked out the infuriated men vented their spite by hurling stones through the hotel windows. A general fight followed in the street, men striking out wildly at every one within reach. Several persons were knocked down and trampled before the police reserves arrived on the scene and restored order.

While the riot was at its height, a well-directed stone broke the lens of the stereopticon and severely injured Frederick Schroeder, the operator.

Black Flag at Briansk.

Odessa, Oct. 26.—The black flag floats today over the town of Briansk, where 12,000 railway workmen are on strike, and serious trouble is threatened, as the strikers declare they will shoot any workman who tries to return to his post.

The Ekaterinoslav Railway shops are completely tied up and a black flag has been flung out over them. Black flags also fly from the homes of most of the strikers. It is the determination of the strikers to keep the works closed until they receive better wages and are granted additional political rights.

Any attempt to restart the works is almost sure to result in a conflict between the strikers and the authorities. Pickets are stationed about the plant and workmen carrying weapons are stationed near at hand ready to carry out their threats to shoot workmen who try to operate the factories.

Attempted Murderer and Suicide.

New York Oct. 26.—Driven insane, as it is believed by the chattering of two parrots of which he had charge and inspired by a long-natured hatred of a fellow employe in a Fourth avenue, bird store, Frank Dorsey today shot Miss Josephine Schmidt and then killed himself by sending a bullet into his brain.

"Kill her, kill her" was the command which Dorsey thought he heard in the chattering of the parrots. To friends he had stated at various times that he could never escape from the challenge of the birds. Little attention was paid to this remark however, until today's tragedy recalled it.

For six years Dorsey and Miss Schmidt worked together. She was his senior by several years and thought it incumbent upon her at times to reprove him for what she considered improper conduct. The friction became so great that Dorsey finally forbade the woman to come into his department. Today, however, Miss Schmidt approached him and ordered him to take better care of the birds. With an oath, he drew a revolver and began firing at the woman. Evidently Dorsey thought he had killed his enemy, for he then sent a bullet through his brain dying instantly. Miss Schmidt is only slightly injured and will recover.

Young Woman's Confession.

Birmingham, Ala., Oct. 26—All the mystery surrounding the disappearance and return to her home, of Miss Fannie Fennell, or Sidebotham, as she is better known, was removed today by a confession made by the young woman. Her story of being kidnapped from her home, carried off in a carriage by an unknown man, and confined in a strange house from which she escaped by jumping from a window, she now admits to have been a pure fabrication. Wednesday, the day she was away from home, she now states, was spent in a residence near Birmingham, where she went, of her own volition. No man appears to have been in the case, as the young woman's confession is said to cover that point fully.

The Real Estate Trust Company.

Philadelphia, Oct. 26.—George H. Earle was today discharged at his own request, as receiver of the Real Estate Trust Company, and the company will reopen its doors Nov. 1st.

Many a man of humane impulses, who would not willingly harm a kitten, is guilty of cruelty where his own stomach is concerned. Overdriven overworked, when what it needs is something that will digest the food eaten and help the stomach to recuperate. Something like Kodol For Dyspepsia that is sold by W. F. Creighton & Co., 401 King street.

Independence League Ticket Attacked.

New York, Oct. 26.—William Randolph Hearst and every other candidate on the Independence League tickets down to the lowest office for which nominations were made, will be barred from appearing on the official ballot in the coming election if a contention raised before the appellate division of the Supreme Court by Daniel Cohalan, representing Tammany candidates, is upheld. In arguing an appeal for decisions from court justices upholding a ruling of the board of elections, Mr. Cohalan questioned the validity of every Independence League nominations on the ground that the league is a corporation. Both the common law and public policy forbid, he declared, that a creature of the law, such a corporation as the Independence League, should be allowed to nominate men who in case of election would be called upon to enforce the laws of the State. The court took the case under advisement. It is expected a decision will be rendered within a day or two and the outcome of the hearing is being eagerly awaited.

Improperly Caring for Children.

New York, Oct. 26.—In the arraignment in the Long Island City police court today of John Vehrke and his wife, Fannie, on a charge of improperly caring for their children was brought to light one of those peculiar cases of persons well able to live comfortably, or even luxuriously, who prefer to live in abject poverty while their savings accumulate into a fortune. According to an agent of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children, on whose complaint the couple was arraigned the Vehrkes are worth in the neighborhood of $100,000 yet they were found living in circumstances which it claimed warrant taking their children away from their custody. An abandoned butcher shed was their home and its furnishings are meagre to the extreme. The ancient food box formed the bed for the children. Vehrke and his wife, their six children and the man's aged parents occupied the old butcher shop in common. The children range from Antonio, aged 10, down to Mary, who is two.

Arrest of Alleged Robber.

Berlin, Oct. 26.—William Voigt, a shoemaker and former convict, has been arrested here on the charge that he is the bogus military officer who recently robbed the treasury of the town of Kopenick, after impressing into service to aid him several soldiers whom he overawed and caused to obey his orders because he wore the uniform of a colonel. Voigt's feat has been the joke of all Europe ever since he turned the trick. The authorities claim there is no doubt that he is the bogus officer. Voigt has a long criminal record. He is 57 years old and has served 22 years in prison. He was only released from the penitenelary in February after serving a fifteen year sentence for robbery with violence.

Thinks People are Buried Alive.

Wilmington, Del., Oct. 26.—What proves conclusively that many persons are buried alive, has been demonstrated by the experiment performed on James H. Richards, of this city, in being buried alive by Professor Lawson Herrmann last Tuesday. Richards was placed under five feet of ground and after remaining in that condition without any nourishment for four days, was disinterred and placed in a normal condition today. Prof. Herrmann claims that at least twenty per cent. of the people supposed to be dead, are only in a state of coma, and with proper treatment can be brought back to life.

Another Strike Imminent.

New York, Oct. 26.—A strike of all union cab drivers in New York city is threatened as the result of the walk out of 30 chauffeurs of electric cabs employed by the New York Transportation Co. President Mea, of the Transportation Company, announced today that he will have no difficulty in filling the places of all the strikers and he declared that if an adequate police protection is furnished he intends to send out all his electric carriages irrespective of efforts of the strikers to prevent this.

Mormon Church Selling Out.

Salt Lake City, Oct. 26.—Reports that the Mormon Church as an organization is to retire from commercial busines were further verified yesterday, when it was officially announced that the Utah National Bank had been sold to W. S. McCornick. The bank's stock was largely owned by the church. In the last four months the Mormon Church has disposed of its large holdings in the Utah Light and Railway Company, which controls the principal public utilities at Salt Lake City; its Los Angeles and Salt Lake Railroad, with its great pavillion at Saltair, and its big retail department store at Ogden.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

The jury in the Norfolk Mass., Superior Court this afternoon, awarded a verdict of $6,000 in favor of Miss Grace Cilburn who sued Motorman Marble for $150,000 damages for breach of promise.

A young Indian dressed in his native costume of a flowing purple robe, created a scene in the strangers' gallery of the British House of Commons today by interrupting a debate to harangue the House. He was promptly ejected.

W. V. Veech of Bayard, W. Va., arrived at Cumberland, Md, at 2 o'clock this morning and put up at the Sterling Hotel. Later he was found lying unconscious on the pavement in front of the hotel, having either jumped or fallen out of a second story window. He is badly hurt.

Burglars robbed a safe in the postoffice at Georgetown, O., early today securing $200 in money and stamps. They then stole a horse and buggy from a barn and escaped. A posse is on their trail.

Stepped on Stolen Explosives.

Hundreds of men employed in the big powder plant at Aetna, Ind., below South Chicago, narrowly escaped death in an explosion yesterday, due to the action of two men in stealing explosives from the mill.

A boarding-house was blown up. Lena Beahlers, a maid employed in it, suffered fatal injuries, and the magazines, scattered for acres about, were jeopardized.

The victim, Lena Beahlers, stepped on the stolen explosives when she went to the men's room to clean it. A blast followed that lifted the house from its foundations, tore out the end, twisted the wreck into fire wood and hurled the girl far into a field, one leg torn from her body and the other so mangled as to necessitate amputation.

A mob formed, intent on hunting out the thieves who had secreted the explosives in the room. Two men were seized, and were in danger of being lynched when deputy sheriffs arrived on the scene. The imperiled men were taken from the mob and rushed to Crown Point, where they were lodged in jail for safekeeping.

Judge Upholds Mayor.

Judge Sulzberger, of Philadelphia yesterday refused to grant the injunction restraining the Mayor from interfering with the play "The Clansman" at the Walnut Street Theatre, and the house will remain closed.

The judge said the testimony failed to show any misuse of the Mayor's discretionary power, which was exercised after the threatened mobbing of the theatre by negroes Monday night.

After the decision of the court had been rendered Mayor Weaver declared that it was his intention not to revoke the license of the theatre for the remainder of the year, as he had previously announced. The threat to revoke was held over the theatre in case such action should become necessary.

The court's opinion, delivered by Judge Sulzberger, was a scathing arraignment of Rev. Thomas Dixon's methods.

It was that the Mayor had rightfully exercised judicial power, as he is the chief police officer of the city and responsible for its order, peace and safety. The Mayor could have done nothing else than stop the play, the court said, if he feared the play incited to riot.

The court was of the opinion that beyond a doubt "the book and play had been written while the author was laboring under a sense of smarting wrong and in a heated passion."

Laboring Men for Hughes.

Angry at the action of William R. Hearst and the Independence League in throwing laboring men off that ticket, delegates from several labor unions of New York met in the New Amsterdam Hotel in that city yesterday, and decided to offer their services to the republican managers in behalf of Charles E Hughes for governor.

It was the sense of the meeting that the delegates themselves and other speakers in their organizations should take the stump for Mr. Hughes and carry on an active campaign among the laboring men.

Especially keen was the resentment over the treatment of Thomas Rock, the republican candidate for Senator against Thomas F. Grady, of Tammany Hall. Rock, who is popular in labor circles and as an assemblyman, last year did valuable service for the labor cause in connection with the eight hour bill and other labor measures.

He was placed upon the Independence League ticket by a largely signed petition, circulated with the consent and approbation of Mr. Hearst's managers. The board of elections, however, threw out his petition, and today Mr. Rock is fighting for his rights in court.

Pythians Against Liquor.

A sweeping anti-liquor statute was passed yesterday by the Supreme Lodge, Knights of Pythias now in session in New Orleans. The new statute is expected to bar from entry to the order wholesale liquor dealers and hotelkeepers who run bars in connection with their hotels. With the exception of these two classes, all other liquor dealers were excluded by the old statute which was superseded yesterday. The new statute includes "professional gamblers, saloonkeepers, bartenders or dealers in spirituous, vinous or malt liquors." The most important changes in the new reading are the substitution of the words "dealers" where formerly "retail dealers" stood, and the dropping of the classes "bona fide hotelkeepers," which the old law specifically mentioned as eligible. The new statute does not affect any who are already members of the order.

Every Saturday in Bed.

Johnny Walters, who carelessly walked off with another boy's bicycle, was caught red-handed and taken before Judge H. H. Baker in the new Juvenile Court in Boston. Judge Baker sentenced Johnny to confinement in bed on Saturdays for an indeterminate term. Every Friday night after supper Johnny has got to undress and go to bed and stay there right straight through until Monday morning just before time to go to school. Johnny's mother, concurs in the findings of the Court and intends to see that the punishment is carried out to the letter of the law.

Japanese to Contest.

San Francisco, Oct. 26.—A mass meeting was held by San Francisco Jabanese in Jefferson Square Hall last night for the purpose of discussing the present situation regarding the admission of Japanese children to the city schools. There were 2,500 Japanese present and the hall was crowded to suffocation. One important step taken at the meeting was to raise funds to press an injunction suit in the courts.

Is the Moon Inabited.

Science has proven that the moon has an atmosphere, which makes life in some form possible on that satelite; but not for human beings, who have a hard enough time on this earth of ours; especially those who don't know that Electric Bitters cure Headache, Biliousness, Malaria, Chills and Fever, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Dizziness, Torpid Liver, Kidney complaints, General Debility and Female weakness. Unequalled as a general Tonic and Appetizer for week persons and especially for the aged. It induces sound sleep. Fully guaranteed by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, Druggists. Price only 50.

Trial of Mathews and Mulhall.

The second day's trial of Capt. Mathews and Lieut Mulhall, of the Fourth precinct, Washington, before the police trial board charged with neglect of duty and of preventing railroad men from rescuing Engineer Hugh S. Murphy from his overturned engine, was continue yesterday.

Witnesses testified that the engine cab could have been lifted with the "jack" and Murphy's life saved if the police had not interferred.

T. H Cox, a machinist, said that had it not been for the interference of Capt. Matthews he would have been able to shut off the steam pouring into the face of the prostrate engineer, but that when he attempted to approach the locomotive the captain pushed him back.

V. M. Acors, a yard breakeman, testified that Conductor T. S. Ryan instructed him to help rescue Murphy, and that he was met by the policemen and prevented from going near the engine. Acors said that with him was Conductor Ryan, but the police also refused to allow him to approach the wreck.

Assistant Yard Master Frank G. Stuart, of the Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington Railroad, said that as soon as he heard of the accident he hurried to Sixth street and Maryland avenue and was pushed back by Captain Mathews. Stuart believed that the "jacks," with which the railroad men were working, could have lifted the cab off Murphy's legs, and said that one minute after the chain used on the wreck train was adjusted the engine was raised sufficiently to release the engineer.

T. S. Ryan, a fireman and extra conductor on the Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington Railroad, testified that he was ordered to the scene and was pushed back by a policeman.

Conductor John S. Hutchins testified that Lieut. Mulhall continually waved his arms in the air and shouted: "Get back; they're giving us h—l!" Witness said he was repeatedly driven away from the wrecked engine, and, with the aid of a drawing and a toy engine, described the manner in which Murphy was pinioned beneath the locomotive. "I asked Murphy if the water was hitting him," said the witness, "and Murphy replied: 'My God, I'm burning up.'"

Z. T. May testified that, in his opinion, the closing of the "big valve," which Cox testified he attempted to reach and was prevented from so doing by Capt. Matthews, would have shut off the steam and scalding water. The hearing was continued to this morning.

Circuit Court for the County.

[Judge C. E. Nicol presiding.]

The jury yesterday in the case of Arthur G. Williams against the Washington, Arlington and Falls Church Railway Company, which was a suit for $1,000 damages for alleged forcible ejectment from a car, returned a verdict for the defendant company.

After being surrendered by the District of Columbia officials to the Virginia authorities on a requisition from the governor, Joseph Thomas, colored, alias John Wright, was brought before Judge Nicol yesterday evening and arraigned on the charges of murder, criminal assault, attempted criminal assault, and assault with intent to kill. In each case he entered a plea of not guilty. He will be placed on trial next Wednesday morning. It is understood, that the prisoner will be tried first on the charge of criminally attacking Miss Mabel Risley near Luna Park several weeks ago. When Thomas was arraigned, Commonwealth Attorney Mackey informed the court that the prisoner was without counsel, and Judge Nicol assigned Attorneys James E. Clements and Basil Boteler to conduct the defense. Many people were at the courthouse when Thomas was taken to the jail there, and a big crowd gathered about the prison to get a look at the negro. The prisoner begged Sheriff Palmer and Jailer Collins to protect him from violence, and seemed much relieved when once safely behind the bars of a cell.

Today the case of Howard Smoot vs. the W., A. & F. C. Ry. Co., a suit for $20,000 damages, went over till the third day of the next term.

Arguments are being heard today on the petition of J. M. Pettit for a license to sell liquor near Brick Haven, in Jefferson district. A decision had not been reached when this report closed.

A Timely Suggestion.

Complaint has been made for many years of the unsightly condition of the Strand from King to Prince street. Whenever there is a high tide the roadway is converted into a quagmire, and rainy weather causes similar conditions. It has been suggested that now that the city is preparing to pave with cobblestones Prince street from Union to the river that some concerted plan should be formulated between the city authorities and the property-owners looking toward further improvements on the Strand. Many cobblestones have already been taken from streets where vitrified brick have been used in paving which could be utilized on the Strand. The work need not necessarily stop at Prince street, but it could be extended farther south. Of course it would be necessary, should the city expend money toward improving this neglected part of the city, to obtain a guaranty from the property-owners that the Strand should be kept open as a thoroughfare.

Violations of the Cow Law.

A strange cow, for whose actions no one seems to be responsible, has been prowling about the southeastern section of the city recently invading yards and in some instances causing alarm, especially among young children. The animal yesterday evening entered a yard for the purpose of eating grass, and when an attempt was made to drive it from the enclosure the cow ran at a little boy, raised the child on its horns and tossed him as high as the fence. Fortunately the horns had caught in the child's clothing and he escaped serious injury.

The three-masted schooner Isaiah K. Stetson, which had been loaded with railroad ties at the B. & O., transfer slip, sailed yesterday for Boston.

No Change in Situation.

The Southern Railway machine shops in this city are still silent and the work of removing machinery continues.

The company made arrangements yesterday for the construction of an overhead bridge from the machine shops to the round house, but the work was stopped by the authorities until the consent of Council shall have been obtained.

Special officers are still guarding the company's property in and near this city. Last night several shots were heard in the vicinity of the new union depot. The cause could not be ascertained this morning.

Several men from McKeesport, Pa., who had been employed to work in the shops arrived in Washington yesterday. One of the number made his way to this city, but upon reaching here and ascertaining the conditions now prevailing, concluded to return to his home.

Seek Release From Asylum.

The hearing on the application of Mrs. Caroline Corbett and her daughter, Miss Cornelia Corbett, for a writ of habeas corpus to secure their release from St. Elizabeth's Insane Asylum, in the District of Columbia, was begun before Justice Gould, in Washington, yesterday. A number of witnesses, including the applicants, were examined, and the hearing was continued until today. It is asserted that Mrs. Corbett and her daughter have been illegally detained at the asylum since June 8, 1904. This is the fourth attempt of the applicants to gain their release by means of habeas corpus proceedings. Mrs. Corbett is the widow of Frank Corbett, who was at one time collector of the post at Alexandria, and was an extensive property owner in Virginia. After his death the estate became involved. The excutors under the will of Mr. Corbett were required to give bond in the sum of $75,000.

"Joshua Simpkins"

The attraction at the Opera House Monday night will be "Joshua Simpkins." It is a strong rural comedy drama, opening with a realistic scene of rural home life, showing Skinner Tavern with Uncle Josh's Briar Farm in the distance. The play abounds in interesting situations and the climax is reached in the third act when a human being is helplessly bound to a log to be cut in twain by a mammoth buzz saw, and is only saved by the timely arrival of Uncle Josh. "Josh Simpkins" was written with a view of keeping an audience thoroughly amused, and it fully carries out the author's intention. The plot is not allowed to interfere with the comedy parts to any extent, thus producing a play that is thrillingly interesting and said to contain many laughs. The company carries a fine orchestra and a laughable burlesque band.

Vessel Detained.

The four-masted schooner Malcolm B. Seavey, with a cargo of phosphate rock from Port Tampa, Fla., for this port, has been delayed, by accident. A message received from Charleston, S. C., states that the vessel has put in there, leaking badly, and will have to be repaired before resuming her trip. The Seavey sailed from Port Tampa October 9, and was at sea when the West Indian storm was raging over the south Atlantic.

Car Derailed.

A car of a north bound freight train of the Washington-Southern Railway was derailed on the high embankment a few yards north of the culvert over the electric railway at Spring Park at 5:20 this morning. The accident caused a congestion of trains in the vicinity of the new union depot until the car was replaced upon the rails.

Council Tonight.

A special meeting of the City Council will be held tonight to take action on the a resolution offering a reward for the arrest of the murderer of Charles T. Smith. The Mayor, as stated yesterday, withheld his approval of the bill on legal grounds.

Appointment Declined.

Thomas E. Rowen, the engineer on the Southern Railroad who was recently promoted by the appointment to a position as assistant, has declined the place Mr. Rowen, who is one of the best engineers on the road, will continue to drive she engine that pulls Capt. W. W. Payne's train on alternate days. —[Edinburg Sentinel.

WOMEN'S NEGLECT

SUFFERING THE SURE PENALTY

How many women do you know who are perfectly well and strong? We hear every day the same story over and over again. "I do not feel well; I am so tired all the time!"

More than likely you speak the same words yourself, and no doubt you feel far from well. The cause may be easily traced to some derangement of the female organs which manifests itself in depression of spirits, reluctance to go anywhere or do anything, backache, bearing-down pains, flatulency, nervousness, sleeplessness, or other female weakness.

These symptoms are but warnings that there is danger ahead, and unless heeded a life of suffering or a serious operation is the inevitable result.

The never-failing remedy for all these symptoms is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Miss Kate McDonald of Woodbridge, N. J., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:

"Restored health has meant so much to me that I cannot help from telling about it for the sake of other suffering women.

"For a long time I suffered untold agony with a female trouble and irregularities, which made me a physical wreck, and no one thought I would recover, but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has entirely cured me, and made me well and strong, and I feel it my duty to tell other suffering women what a splendid medicine it is."

For twenty-five years Mrs. Pinkham, daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham, has under her direction, and since her decease, been advising sick women free of charge. Her advice is free and always helpful. Address, Lynn, Mass.

FINANCIAL

SUCCESS BEGETS SUCCESS

That's why the number of the depositors of this corporation increase—we are successful not only in the handling of banking business, but also in our methods of investment. The officers and directors of this corporation are men of known business ability—they are mentally alert and active, and the fact that this corporation has a wide-spread reputation for conservatism and strength is owing largely to the business standing of the men who direct its affairs. Every progressive idea consistent with solid banking methods is largely adopted by this institution. We pay 3 PER CENT. INTEREST on deposits in our Savings Department and would like to have you open an account with us, however small the amount. ONE DOLLAR, for instance, will start you. We act as Executor, Administrator, Trustee and in all other fiduciary capacities—Issue Fidelity, Contract, Official and Judicial Bonds and have Safe Deposit Boxes for rent at reasonable rates. General Banking Business transacted. We pay interest on time deposits and solicit the accounts of Banks, Corporations, Firms and Individuals. Call to see us.

St. Napoleon.

Many people ignorant of the true history of the church will be scandalized when they read the title of this article. Let them read it to the end. There was in Corsica some hundred years ago a very pious family called the Bonapartes. Their first child was born on the 15th of August, Assumption day, and as he looked very small and feeble they wanted him to be baptised without delay. Their priest consented to perform the ceremony, but as it was customary to give to a child the name of the patron saint of his or her birthday the good priest could not and would not call him "Assumption Bonaparte." In his embarrassment he looked carefully over the "Lives of the Saints" and finally found the name of a saint martyr who in the first centuries of the church had been stoned to death on that very day of Aug. 15. Of course neither Mr. nor Mrs. Bonaparte objected that their firstborn child should be named Napoleon, having thus the high patronage of a brave martyr of the early Christian church.—Letter to Philadelphia North American.

A Blunder In Poets.

Tennyson is not the only poet laureate whom Regent street has known. Southey relates a ludicrous scrape into which he and Campbell fell one day in the Quadrant. Campbell wished to relieve a poor woman and rushed into the nearest shop to change a sovereign. The shopkeeper was attending to customers and delayed to oblige him, and the generous poet lost his temper. Thereupon the shopkeeper jumped to the conclusion that he had two rogues to deal with and rashly sent for the police. Campbell stood in helpless fury, but when Southey explained things to the constable that worthy, who happened to be a Glasgow man, at once exclaimed, "Guidness, mon, is that Maister Camell, the lord rector o' Glaisgie?" After that it was difficult to separate Campbell and the shopkeeper, so warmly were their hands interclasped in explanations and forgiveness.—Westminster Gazette.

Cornish Fishermen.

In the estimation of the average Cornish fisherman rabbit is an ominous word, and should it happen to be used by any one in their hearing when they are on their way to sea it is sufficient to send them home again for that occasion for fear of accident. In Cornish fishing circles many tales are told of disasters that have followed defiance of this superstition and persistence in putting off in their boats after the unlucky word had been spoken. Formerly the word church was equally obnoxious to the fishermen and was sedulously eschewed in conversation, on the water particularly. If a case arose, as sometimes it would, in which a sacred edifice had necessarily to be referred to, "cleeta" was used instead of church, and whatever was ominous or evil in the sound of the latter was imagined to be thereby avoided.

Devil's Island Torture.

is no worse than the terrible case of Piles that afflicted me 10 years. Then I was advised to apply Bucklen's Arnica salve, and less than a box permanently cured me, writes L. S. Napier, of Rugles, Ky. Heals all wounds, Burns and Sores like magic. 25c at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, Druggists.

Drop by drop the offensive discharge caused by Nasal Catarrh falls from the back of the nose into the throat, setting up an inflammation that is likely to mean Chronic Bronchitis. The certain, rational cure for Catarrh is Ely's Cream Balm, and the relief that follows even the first application cannot be told in words. Don't suffer a day longer from the discomfort of Nasal Catarrh. Cream Balm is sold by all druggists for 50 cents, or mailed by Ely Bros., 56 Warren street, New York.

JEWELRY.

Going Housekeeping?

If so, you can hardly get along without spoons, knives and forks. The silver-plated are without a doubt the most economical in the end. They wear longer, look better and cost very little more than the ordinary kinds. We can even supply silver-plated knives with steel blades.

Your sideboard is hardly complete without a silver set. Silver cake and fruit baskets should also be placed there.

A candelabra with will brighten the table considerably. After the spread has been cleared off a silver fern dish should be placed on the table.

The necessary things in cut-glass are the decanter, the berry bowl and the celery dish. In a great many homes the ice cream is served on cut glass plates.

On your dresser place a travelling alarm clock and a sterling silver or silver-plated toilet set, also a hat and clothes brush.

You will find plenty use of a number of small silver-plated trays. One has always so many trinkets to take care of.

There should be a jewel case on the dresser, if only for appearance sake. Over night it is a good place to keep the watch and Z—K Gold Chain.

TAYLOR QUALITY (Best).

Our Ice Cream Soda

Doesn't "just happen" to be so good.

We make our own ice cream with pure ingredients only, special formula, special process and specially filtered water in our confectionery.

That's why it's so fine.
